8) How many academies are there?

- There are five service academies.
- Three reside within the Department of Defense:
 - U.S. Military Academy at West Point, New York
 - U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland
 - U.S. Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colorado
- Two reside within the Department of Transportation:
 - U.S. Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, New York
 - U.S. Coast Guard Academy at New London, Connecticut

9) Are the requirements the same for all of the service academies?

- No. Although many of the qualifications are similar, each academy operates under its own admissions guidelines. Visit the academy of your choice via the websites noted for each academy's particular admissions qualifications. It is not necessary to seek a nomination to the Coast Guard Academy, as the U.S.C.G.A. accepts candidates based on their own testing criteria.

10) Who should I ask to write a letter of recommendation on my behalf?

- Some of the people applicants typically seek recommendations from include:
 - Teachers

- We do not require a specific recommendation form. A letter of recommendation is sufficient.

- No. You can be nominated to multiple academies depending on how well you have competed among this year's pool of candidates. It is possible to receive multiple nominations.

12) Will I automatically be selected by the academy after I receive a nomination?

- No. You will be placed among a select group of nominees, and the academy of your choice will make the final decision. If selected, you will receive an offer of admission (an appointment) directly from the academy.

13) When will I know if I have been offered an appointment by an academy?

- Academies will begin to notify candidates of their admission status in February. All offers of appointment are generally sent out by May.

14) Who do I contact if I have questions about Congressman Kelly's nomination process?

- Contact Chookie LaCamera, the Military Academy Coordinator
 - Via email, at: francis.lacamera@mail.house.gov
 - Or by phone, at: 724-342-7170

15) Where can I find specific information about each of the service academies?

- In addition to seeking a nomination from Rep. Kelly, you must also open an admissions file at each academy you are interested in. Due to the fact that nominations are highly competitive, it is to your advantage to apply to more than one academy. If you are not accepted at one academy, you can be accepted at another.
